Contributions to the California Republican Party are non-tax deductible for Federal or California tax purposes. Corporate contributions will be used in California state elections. These contributions may be made in any amount. Individual contributions will be used in both federal and California state elections and may also be made in any amount. Contributions to the state committee are unlimited, and may be allocated as follows: up to $32,500 per calendar year for direct state candidate support, with amounts in excess used for permissible non-direct candidate support purposes. Such contributions may also be used for federal Levin account purposes, up to $10,000 per individual, corporate or PAC donor. Federal and California law requires political committees to report the name, mailing address, occupation and employer for each donor whose contributions aggregate $100 or more per calendar year. Contributors of $10,000 or more to CRP and all other state or local candidates, PACs, political party committees or ballot measures in a calendar year must file a California "Major Donor Committee" report.
