

Wes Fry, Esq.
July 2, 1993
Page Two

I simply point this out to ask the question that if Luis proceeds with Dennis Scott and when Noble is successful in driving XHRM out of its "Flash 92.5" format, will Dennis be able to meet all of his financial obligations?

I write the second part of this letter not as a threat but simply as a statement of fact, and since the confidentiality of my offer seems to have been breached, I feel compelled to add it. Nonetheless, my offer stands good until the close of business on Tuesday.

Kindest regards,

John T. Lynch
Chairman and
Chief Executive Officer

JTL/ch